

EXHIBIT 6

TRAVIS & CALHOUN, P.C.

Eric G. Calhoun

Eric Calhoun joined Travis & Calhoun as a shareholder in 2005. He focuses primarily on commercial and class action litigation, including predatory lending litigation.

Mr. Calhoun received his undergraduate degree from Illinois Wesleyan University in 1982. He obtained an MBA from the University of Illinois in 1987. He obtained his law degree from the University of Illinois that same year, graduating cum laude. While in law school, Mr. Calhoun received the American Jurisprudence Award for academic excellence.

In 2003, 2005, 2006, 2008, 2009 and 2010, Mr. Calhoun was voted a Texas Super Lawyer by his peers in the area of business litigation as published in Texas Monthly magazine. He is rated A-V preeminent by Martindale-Hubbell.

Eric Calhoun served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable James P. Churchill, then Chief of United States District Judge for the Eastern District of Michigan (retired), and the Honorable Frederick P. Stamp, Jr., United States District Judge (now Senior Judge) for the Northern District of West Virginia. Mr. Calhoun is licensed to practice in the states of Texas, New York and Illinois. He has also been admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court, United States Courts of Appeal for the Third, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh and Ninth Circuits, United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit and the United States District Courts for the Northern, Southern, Western and Eastern Districts of Texas, Southern and Central Districts of Illinois, Western and Northern Districts of New York, Middle District of Mississippi, Southern District of Indiana, and Western and Middle Districts of Tennessee. Mr. Calhoun has been practicing in the areas of commercial litigation, class actions and civil trial law in Dallas, Texas, since 1991.

Mr. Calhoun has represented both plaintiffs and defendants in a variety of different types of commercial cases. For example, he obtained a plaintiff's jury verdict in excess of $6 Million Dollars in an individual securities fraud case in Dallas.

Mr. Calhoun has been co-plaintiff counsel and/or co-class counsel in numerous class action cases involving allegations of violations of state and federal laws. Mr. Calhoun has been co-counsel in cases that have settled for an excess of $175,000,000.00, as well as a number of pending cases. These cases include:

1. Hargrave v. TXU Corp., 3:03-CV-2573, in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas;
2. Dundon, et. al. v. U.S. Bank, N.A., N.D., No. 01-408, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Illinois;
3. Banks, et. al. v. First Plus Asset Banked Certificates 1996-2et. al., No. 05-6583 in the Fourth Judicial Court of Hennepin County, Minnesota;
4. Alford, et al. v. Mego Mortgage Home Loan Trust 1997-1, et. al., No. 27-CV-06-2262 in the Fourth Judicial District Court of Hennepin County, Minnesota;
5. Berry, et. al. v. Empire Funding Home Loan Owner Trust 1997-1, et. al., No. 27-CV-06-2263 in the Fourth Judicial District Court of Hennepin County, Minnesota;
6. Cates, et al. v. U.S. Bank, N.A., N.D.; No. 04-6202 in the Fourth Judicial District Court of Hennepin County, Minnesota;
7. In Re: First Plus Bank; No. 01CC13911, in the Superior Court of the State of California, Orange County;
8. Vinke, et al. v. Bann-Cor Mortgage; No. 01-CV-6313 in the District Court, Denver, Colorado;

9. Bess, et al. v. German American Capital Corp., No. 24-CV-04-0388, in the Circuit Court of Maryland for Baltimore City, Maryland; and

10. Couch, et al. v. SMC Lending, et al., No. CV100-4332 CC, in the Circuit Court of Clay County, Missouri;

11. Baker v. Century Financial Group, Inc. et al., No. CV 100-4294 CC, in the Circuit Court of Clay County, Missouri; and

12. Gilmore, et al. v. Preferred Credit Corp., No. CV100-4263CC, in the Circuit Court of Clay County, Missouri.

Jeffrey M. Travis

Jeffrey M. Travis is a litigation attorney with experience in virtually every aspect of business litigation, including, but not limited to banking, franchising and distribution, healthcare, securities, secured transactions, partnership, corporate, real estate, antitrust, class actions, trade regulation, intellectual property and general contract matters.

Mr. Travis earned his law degree in 1985 from the University of Illinois where he was an editor on the UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS LAW REVIEW. Mr. Travis received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Westminster College in Fulton, Missouri, in 1982, graduating summa cum laude. In addition to his many bar activities, Mr. Travis is a guest lecturer at Baylor Law School, lecturing from time to time on the subjects of depositions and discovery.

Prior to the formation of Travis & Calhoun, Mr. Travis was associated with Holme, Roberts & Owen, the oldest and largest law firm in Denver, Bickel & Brewer, a national litigation boutique with offices in New York, Chicago, Washington and Dallas, and the Dallas office of Houston-based Liddell, Sapp, Zivley, Hill & LaBoon, L.L.P. (now known as Locke, Liddell & Sapp, L.L.P).

Mr. Travis is a member of the State Bar of Colorado and the State Bar of Texas and is licensed to practice before all of the federal and state courts of Colorado and Texas. He is also licensed to practice before numerous other federal trial and appellate courts throughout the nation.

Jared C. Inman

Jared C. Inman is a business litigation attorney. He attended law school at Southern Methodist University as a recipient of the William L. Hutchinson Scholarship, graduating cum laude in 2011. During law school, Mr. Inman was a staff editor of the International Law Review, a member of the San Diego Defense Lawyers trial advocacy team, and interned with the Honorable Carlos Cortez, Judge of the 44th Civil District Court of Dallas County. Mr. Inman also participated in SMU's Legal Related Education Program where he volunteered his time teaching middle school children certain aspects about the law.

Mr. Inman received his undergraduate degree in 2008 from Texas A&M University, graduating cum laude from the Mays Business School Honors Program with a Bachelors of Business Administration in Finance. During his time at Texas A&M, Mr. Inman was repeatedly named to the Mays Business School Dean's Honor Roll. He also worked part time writing articles for the student run news publication, The Maroon, and was employed by a local law firm.

Mr. Inman joined the firm upon graduation from law school and is licensed to practice law in all state courts in Texas.